

Property Adviser - Birmingham – (Local Area Consultant)

HCR Group is the UK's largest independent relocation specialist and leading provider of rental accommodation for corporate and government departments. With 28 years experience, managing permanent, short & long-term relocations in the UK and worldwide, we are experts in looking after people before, during and after their move.

Based in Basingstoke we are a progressive, forward thinking organisation that values its employees so that they can provide a first class personal service to our clients.

This is an exciting opportunity for a property professional to become a local area consultant for the UK's leading independent relocation company.

As a Property Adviser, you would be an essential part of HCR's customer service delivery platform and play an important role in making their relocation experience hassle free. A smart appearance, cheerful disposition, professionalism and attention to detail are all key attributes for this full time position.

Whilst previous experience in the housing or property market would be an advantage, in-house training will be provided to the successful candidate.

If you are committed to delivering first class customer service please forward your C.V. along with current salary details and covering letter for the attention of: -
